TOUR OVERVIEW

KHAJURAHO: One of the most famous culture hot spots in India! It is a UNESCO World Heritage site! The temples are known for their unique sculptures and standing the test of time for nearly a 1000 years! The temples are known for its realistic and intricately carved statues! A lot of history is showcased through these statues of that period! It is advisable to stay for 2 nights to have a detailed and relaxed tour of this historical place! There are several good places to eat local and delicious meals or hang out in cafes during the late evening and let the place just grow on you!

PANNA: This tiger reserve has the famous title of reviving the tiger population! After the tragic loss of tigers from this park mainly due to poaching, how this tiger reserve got back on its feet and brought back the tigers is a remarkable story! One should visit the park to see these magnificent striped cats in an amazing background that Panna has to offer. It also encourages the local forest department to work harder as it gets popular! The famous Ken river adds in to the charm of this forest. Large plateau and gorges create a wonderful back drop and suspense to this rocky terrain. Full of trees from Sal, Jamun, Teak and many more!

The tigers here are quite bold and many wonderful plus unique settings give a different perspective to an image! There are several species other than tigers, especially leopards! Leopard sighting is quite frequent in this park! Sloth bear, Nilgai (Blue bull), Wild boar, Sambhar deer, Spotted deer, Chinkara and many more mammals are found resident here! There are over 200 bird species recorded in this forest! Several subspecies of Vultures are found here!
